

Boy Scouts of America Wilderness First Aid 16 Hour Course

Priority Medical Training will be conducting a WFA Course at Camp Jackson. This course is open to any scout or scouter 13 years of age or older.

This Course covers a variety of modules to include:

Patient assessment in the field
Field triage
Assessment and treatment by body system
Common wilderness injuries and illnesses
Search and Rescue
Remote Wilderness Care
And Many More Including CPR

Course Information:

Dates: November 4-5 2017
Price 120.00 includes meals and course materials.
Meals Provided Saturday and Sunday.

Course starts 9:00 am on the 4th of November
Course ends 5:00 pm on the 5th of November

Camp Information:

There are Restrooms on site
This will be a primitive camping experience, so you will need a tent and a sleeping bag.
Please be prepared for the weather as it will be November.
Staff will be at Jackson on Nov 3rd after 5:00 pm.

Location: BSA Camp Jackson, Scottsboro AL

Register at <http://ezregister.com/events/19835/> or go to Prioritymedicaltraining.com